Bond and Insurance Administration

Your information may be used for the purposes of bond and insurance administration by the surety, its associated companies and agents by reinsurers and your intermediary. It may be disclosed to regulatory bodies for the purposes of monitoring and/or enforcing the surety's compliance with any regulatory rules/codes. Your information may also be used for research and statistical purposes and crime prevention. It may be transferred to any country, including countries outside the European Economic Area for any of these purposes and for systems administration. Where this happens, we will ensure that anyone to whom we pass your information agrees to treat your information with the same level of protection as if we were dealing with it.

If you give us information about another person, in doing so you confirm that they have given you permission to provide it to us and for us to be able to process their personal data (including any sensitive personal data) and also that you have told them who we are and what we will use their data for, as set out in this notice.

In assessing any claims made, the surety or its agents may undertake checks against publicly available information (such as electoral roll, county court judgements, bankruptcy orders or repossessions).

Information may also be shared with other sureties and insurers either directly or via those acting for the surety (such as loss adjusters or investigators).

In order to prevent and detect fraud we may at any time:

- Share information about you with other organisations and public bodies including the Police;
- Undertake credit searches and additional fraud searches;

We can supply on request further details of the databases we access or contribute to.

We and other organisations may also search these agencies and databases to:

- Trace debtors or beneficiaries, recover debt, prevent fraud and to manage your accounts, bonds or insurance policies;
- Check your identity to prevent money laundering, unless you furnish us with other satisfactory proof of identity.

In the case of personal data, with limited exceptions, and on payment of the appropriate fee, you have the right to access and if necessary rectify information held about you.

Claims History

- You must tell us about any bond related incidents whether or not they give rise to a claim. When you tell us about an incident we will pass information relating to it to a database.
- We may search these databases when you apply for bonds, in the event of any incident or claim to validate your claims history or that of any other person or property likely to be involved in the bond or claim.

You should show these notices to anyone who has an interest in the bond under the policy.
