

Why Work At Verlingue?

Be part of our journey

We have been an established independent business for over 90 years, owned by the Verlingue family and senior management team, with Benjamin Verlingue at the helm and have plans for significant growth in the coming years.

Whether you are currently working at Verlingue or want to come and join our exceptional team, find out what makes us great and how we create an environment where everyone is seen as an individual and given the opportunity to thrive.

Career

If you want to keep moving forwards and learning new skills, then Verlingue is a great business for you.

We want you to enjoy a rewarding, challenging and long-lasting career. We'll support you in achieving your personal, professional and career development goals in a structured and transparent way. We'll agree a plan with you to help you understand how your development links to your career and remuneration ambitions.

Culture

“We are family” – this is the bedrock of our culture and the standard by which everything we do is judged.

Exceptional, Proud and Inclusive are our 3 values and we aspire to demonstrate these every day in the service we provide to our clients and the way we recognise and celebrate everyone's contributions. We want you to feel part of a family who looks after each other and who are connected to a common cause that we are all proud of.

Work Environment

We strive to be a modern and progressive business and have fully embraced flexible working practices.

We have a great team culture and our modern offices have all been designed to promote a feeling of positivity and collaboration, making our time together supportive, efficient and fun.

Wellbeing

We're all human and are affected by issues in our lives both in and out of work.

We do everything we can to support your mental, physical and financial wellbeing and we're committed to helping you achieve a healthy work / life balance. If you ever need extra support, then we'll help you access the great resources we have in place.

Reward

Our ambition is always to recognise your contribution with a competitive salary and comprehensive benefits package.

We understand that your priorities change over time and our flexible benefits package gives you significant freedom in how you choose to structure and buy your benefits. These include Pension, Health Cash Plan, Life Insurance, Private Medical, Electronics purchase, Cycle to Work, Shopping Vouchers and many more.
